START WITH US!

As a software startup, we have developed a solution that uses artificial intelligence to accelerate and digitize B2B sales in a revolutionary way. In doing so, we pursue great goals, both technologically and entrepreneurially. If you want to make a real difference in an agile and highly innovative environment with passion, then you've come to the right place in our team.

YOU SHOULD BRING THIS WITH YOU

- Most importantly: you enjoy entrepreneurship and working in a team!
- Our gears need to mesh, so we expect you to work both independently and result driven as well as in close collaboration with the team
- You are committed, motivated and curious to learn every day something new
- You have a degree in computer science, but we also appreciate it if you have gained comparable skills in different ways
- You have gained in depth development experience in particular regarding web-applications, using e.g. JavaScript, TypeScript, HTML/CSS, Node.JS and SQL-Databases
- Hands-On experience in Angular, GraphQL, Apollo, Docker or Nomad would be a plus
- You want to broaden your horizon and acquire insights into areas like data science and artificial intelligence
- Finally, if you think you match, you are exactly the person we are looking for!
